

Mass at the Mass Rock Glack

The celebration of the sacraments was severely suppressed in the 16th and 17th centuries. A rock on which it is believed that Mass was celebrated has been preserved at the townland of Glack on the Ballivor-Kinnegad road.

On Sunday 31st August, Fr Ciarán will celebrate Mass at the Mass Rock at 4pm.

Parking will be available in the adjoining field.

Tara to Slane pilgrim walk – Bealach an tSolais – 30th August 2025

The annual pilgrim walk from the Hill of Tara to the Hill of Slane will take place on Saturday 30th August. This year marks the 25th anniversary of the first pilgrimage for the Great Jubilee of the Year 2000. Tara is associated with our pre-Christian history while Slane, according to tradition, is the site where St. Patrick lit the Paschal Fire for the first time in Ireland. The walk is therefore a journey towards the Light of Christ, the source of hope on our pilgrim journey through life. The walk is 15 miles (24 kms) long and winds along country roads through Skryne, Walterstown, and Beauparc, before crossing the Boyne at Slane. For information and registration, contact Navan Parish Office at 046-9027518 or office@navanparish.ie

ACN Pilgrimage to Knock Papal charity Aid to the Church in Need Ireland invites people to join their national pilgrimage to Knock Shrine on Saturday August 30 to highlight the plight of Christians who suffer persecution for their faith in many parts of the world. Mass is in the basilica at 3pm – all welcome. For more info, see www.acnireland.org
